“ My Dear Anne: We go back to the mid 70's as friends and co-workers. You also honored me by asking me to be your Maid of Honor at your's and Keith's wedding. You were the most caring, loving person I have ever met. You always gave your time to others, asking for nothing in return. That is a special gift. I will miss you so very much my friend...I will always hold a special place in my heart for you.

*My deepest condolence to Keith and the family. I am only a phone call away Keith.
Love you both,
Joanne Bader*

“ Auntie Ann was a wonderful woman and a loving aunt. She may have only been my great aunt, but she was the GREATEST aunt that anyone could ever ask for. She was more to me than just an aunt, she was a friend, a mentor, and a role model. She taught me many valuable lessons about life, family, and myself. She has inspired me to be a better person. She will always be in NY heart and in my memories. I love you Auntie Ann.
