“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Ben's grandson, Ben was one of my son's first friends when we moved to Crystal. Ben invited Michael to stay for supper one night--Chicken and spaghetti. I still remember Michael coming home excited about the great supper he had and what a good Cook Mr. Norkoli was!!

I will miss see Ben on the top of the grand stand at the next Trojan Football game. He was always there-- in good or bad weather-- winning or losing. He was always supportive. Always a kind word. Sorry for your loss.

“ Kelly, Lisa, Bill, Rikki, and Sydney,

My thoughts and prayers go out to you during this time. I will always remember Ben and how he gave me my special name "turkey" as a young child and how he always called me that right to the end. I will always be grateful that I knew him and will always remember him in my heart. I have my special turkeys on my dresser and that is where they will stay in my special place. I love you all!
