“ Char was my friend at the Tobin. She and I rode our bikes together, we had fun growing up together. We were classmates (same age). We made our Confirmation together (I have pictures), and we graduated high school together. In the past few years we had many telephone conversations together, reminiscing, talking about old times. Previous to that we got together every year when I came to Crystal for my annual visit, she and Pearl and Nancy and I. Char provided the pasties and cake and coffee and Tom took the pictures of us four buddies. I love Char, I miss Char, she was a best friend to our group of best friends. God take care of you Char until I get there to hold hands. Carrol (Brozak) McCollough

Char, it has been a year and three weeks since you left us. I think of you, I think of our phone calls the last years, and our visits when you and Tom still lived in Iron Mountain. I miss you girl. God keep you.

“ Our condolences to the loving family of Charlotte Butler. Charlotte was the mom everyone loved. She was a selfless, kind, loving and nurturing human being. One of the cherished memories that comes to mind was the time I went to the Butlers on Halloween. A small group of us kids walked up onto the front porch. We eagerly knocks at the door. Waiting for some delicious treats. After a few seconds; the door squeaked open. There stood “Char” in full nurse costume. At least that’s when we thought. Not knowing she was a nurse. “Nice costume” we all said. She simply smiled and dipped her hand into a bowl and started to hand out Halloween treats. She looked down at me and said; “Mike you shouldn’t eat too much candy tonight. Your tummy will be hurting later.” I looked up at her and said; “ Mrs. Butler.. I can eat anything... my tummy is tuff.” She gave a little chuckle and handed me an extra butterfinger. With that she thanked us for coming and told us to be careful and don’t stay out too late. She then turned and slowly closed the door. She was definitely a member of the greatest generation. Rest In Peace special lady.

Respectfully,
Mike and Sheila Nantelle
