“ I worked with Cindy back in the 80's. She was so smart and real joy to be around. She hyped up iced coffee so much that I figured it had to be good, so I tried it. Bleh! That was the only bad advice she ever gave me. RIP, Cindy.

“ Aunt Cyndi was truly a blessing to all who knew her. She was always focused on those around her and I will truly miss the time we spent together. She had a calm and kind way about her that let you know you were with someone who cared about other more than herself. We will miss you.

“ Cynthia's love for her animals was one of her great attributes. Her caring personality was definitely relayed to them, and now will be full filled in Heaven. We should all display her gentle, kind spirit. She will be missed by many!

“ Cindy will always be remembered for her gentle spirit and the special memories she created for our boys. They absolutely loved visiting her farm where she patiently let them ride her miniature horses, help feed them and teach them all about their care. She had a soft-spoken way about her that made everyone feel at ease. In a unique twist, she became my French teacher in high school, which gave me the opportunity to know her in a whole new way, both as family and as a teacher. Those memories, filled with laughter, learning and love will stay with always.

I met Cindy when I was 12. She lived near my parents home. She tutored me in math and English. She also taught me how to make pies and bread. She was so kind and patient. I will forever cherish those times. Rest in peace.

Cynthia was such an incredibly kind soul. I volunteered with her at the Northwoods Animal Shelter for many years, and she was always so compassionate, gentle and kind to all the animals. Cynthia loved cats and shared that love with many residents at the local care centers. She brought joy to so many people!

God bless her as she reunites with all of her animals and her Mom & Dad.
