

Donald L Colombino

January 8, 1926 - March 4, 2024

Donald L Colombino, 98, of Amasa, MI, passed away peacefully Monday, March 4, 2024, at the Iron County Medical Care Facility in Crystal Falls.

He was born on January 8, 1926, in Crystal Falls, Michigan. He was a lifelong resident of Amasa and a very reliable historian of the town. An Army veteran of World War II, he served in the Ardennes Rhineland Central Europe battles, earning the EAME Theater Ribbon W/3 Bronze Stars and Victory Medal World War

II. Every Memorial Day he would attend the services at the Amasa Cemetery to honor those who had served. He was an avid outdoor person with one of his favorite pastimes spending time at the cabin built by his son, Kurt. He retired from the Iron Mountain Post Office and maintained a close friendship with fellow workers.

He is survived by 4 sons, Kurt (Linda), Mark, Michael (Laurie), and Lee Colombino; a daughter, Linda Bradley; 4 grandchildren, Aaron, Sarah, Brian, and Teresa; 11 great-grandchildren, Sophia, Persephone, Hanah, Jordyn, Mackenzie, Rylee, Isabel, Paul, Josephine, Ellie and Elio.

Donald was preceded in death by his wife, Mary Jane and a son, Loren.

A sincere, heartfelt thank you to the Cedar Wing staff of Iron County Medical Care Facility for the kind, compassionate care provided to Donald.

A graveside service will be held at a later date.

Memorials may be made in Donald's memory to the charity of your choice.

“ So sorry Kurt, Linda and family. But what a wonderful life he did lead. There’s an Amasa reunion happening in Heaven. And thank you, Kurt for attending Blair’s mass. So much sadness. But we get by with a little help from our friends.

“ Kurt and family, I am saddened at the loss of your dad, uncle, grandpa, friend. I always thought the world of both Donald and Mary Jane and loved having conversations with them whenever I happened to see them. Great people who will be missed.
