My deepest sympathy to you in the loss of your mom recently. Hazel Luckow Johnson was my mom and Doris' cousin. As a child I remember visiting your home in Buck Lake! My parents, Hazel and Wally always enjoyed a visit with your parents.

“ Doris was such a friendly nurse, treated a person with smiles and a happy outlook! It was a loss just to have her leave the room, so comforting was her presence, also knew her duties very well!

“ One of the sweetest women you'd ever meet. She made you feel loved and a part of her family from the moment you met her. The very first time I met her, she didnt even know who I was but she found out it was my birthday and made me a cake. Her children grandchildren and great grandchildren will morn her loss and celebrate her life and she will be greatly missed by all, but I will remember the woman who loved me like her very own family. Thank God for having blessed me by letting me share some of our lives. She is a woman who indeed touched the lives of so many with her compassion kindness and love....I hope we can all take a lesson from grandma up-north, love a little harder and spread kindness and try to make the world a better place like she did one person, one child, one life at a time. Thank you for teaching me about unconditional love and how parents are not the only ones who can give it! I pray your in Gods hands now watching down on us and that we can all make you proud by practicing the lessons you taught us. Thank you for loving me "grandma up-north" because I loved you too.
