“ I remember Fran picking up or bringing Caitlin to school and I always marveled at how young she acted. She had this black curly haired dog that she walked and I think that kept her young. What a wonderful kind lady!

“ I always enjoyed my visits with Fran when I gave her communion. Her love of her family and her faith were so strong. Lee Ann and Melissa, you were her strength through everything and your care giving for Fran right until the end to keep her home was so important to her and to you. Now she is soaring with the angels.
