“ Dear Sue and Dan, Jerry will always be in our thoughts and in our prayers. He will never be forgotten. He lived his life his way with adventure and enthusiasm. We loved him...and even though he is in a better place with our Lord and Savior, and family members that preceded him, we will miss him greatly. Take good care, Jim and Jan

“ I worked with Jerry as young man when my father, Arnie Moeller, was the general manager of Meyer Material in the 1970's. I apologize that I do not remember what he looked like, but I remember that all the drivers had there own character and his was a hard name to forget. He was part of my fondest memories growing up "at the yard". My sympathies and condolences to his family at his courageous battle and passing.
