“ Please accept my sincere condolences during this time of sorrow and grief but also a time of peace as well for she is free now of all suffering and has joined all her loved ones who have already welcomed her home to be with the Lord forever. She was a woman of great faith and trust in the Lord whom she served so well in her life with her beautiful children, family and many friends. I would occasion spend time visiting with her whenever there was a family celebration. She was always a woman of faith and trust in her God so we know in our hearts she rejoices now in eternal life. I offered Mass last Sunday for the family during this time of sorrow and yet a time of rejoicing. May God's special blessing be with all the family as they bid a temporary farewell to a beautiful wife, mother and loved one for one day we shall share in life eternal with her. Love to all, Jim Menapace and Menapace family, David and Karen...Peace

“Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. “An Irish proverb Dear Ron,Pat and family we only met Geri once, at Bridget and Patrick’s wedding, we were so impressed with this beautiful Granma. The photo of her and Bridget, from the wedding, captured her wonderful personality. After reading her obituary, I see where Patrick’s inlaws get their amazing generosity and kindness. I wish we were closer so we could return some of the support, you always give everyone. Geri was a fortunate lady to get the loving care she certainly deserved. I know she loved Pat’s singing and now she is singing with the heavenly angels. Sincerely Charlie and Kathy

“ I remember when we were all in "the bride's room" on the day Kevin and Jenny were married, Grandma Geri was holding her newest great grandchild. The gentle rocking and soft words spoken to the child spoke volumes of the amazing lady she was. May she now enjoy her new home in heaven.
