“ To the Skibo family we are so sorry for your loss.

As kids (6th grade) I remember Janet taking us to Green Bay to go shopping which was especially fun cause we got to skip school that day. She and Ed always welcomed me to their home as I chummed with Paul and John during teenage years and beyond.

They say it takes a village to raise a child, Janet was a big part of my village growing up!

“ Janet (Mrs. Skibo to me) was very kind and I was always welcome in their home. I was a friend to Craig, and moved away in 8th grade. During one of my visits she taught me a poem:

*Fishy, fishy, in the brook
Daddy catch it by the hook
Mommy cook it in the pan
Baby eat it like a man.*

I visited her at the nursing home some years ago. I now live near San Diego. I told her of the poem I learned and repeated it to her. When I said the word "man" she said it also. I think she was making sure I remembered it correctly.

I was quite sad when Craig died, and now feel a similar loss, though many miles apart and 50 years have passed.

May God bless you Mrs. Skibo.
