“ I first met Joyce twenty years ago when she and Lee Leonard taught the Baptist church's "release time" class which my second-grade daughter attended. Eventually, I jointed her church and got to know her better when she hosted the ladies' bible study group at her apartment. We also had many long telephone conversations, which I miss. Her seat at church remains unoccupied, as a sign of respect for her attendance.

“ Joyce was a lovely hearted person, kind and caring. The Wilgren house was across from the house we bought in 1971. Her Nephews and Nieces grew up there before I moved across the street. She would keep an eye in the house when the last owner, a Nephew was out of town. Our paths in life crisscrossed time-to-time. Last time was at a health clinic where we both had appointments. She was always neatly dressed and fresh looking! A friendly face gone on to heaven!

Sympathies to family and friends of Joyce!

“ I was just informed that my Auntie Joyce passed away and I would like to send my love to her relatives, she was the most beautiful person. I worked with her for years and also kept in contact with her on special occasions. My heart is heavy with this news. I know she is now in the Lords hands and is at peace.

“ *Joyce was our neighbor for many years while we were growing up!
A very sweet lady! I remember going to talk to her while she weeded flowers! She will be missed! R.I.P Joyce!*
