“ Over the past 40(or so) years through visiting with my sister (Fran), J (brother-in-law) and boys in the Chicago area and talking with her by phone, I felt I knew Mr. and Mrs. Parochelli well. Mr. Parochelli was always a delight to be around. My family knows the pain involved when you loose a dear loved one but we do have the assurance we will be seeing them again in heaven. Loneliness is the hardest thing to get used to but GOD will be there to see each and every one of you through this time of despair. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ I meet a lot of people thru my office--most good--some less than pleasant--Julius and LaRayne are a blessing from God. They are always incredibly positive and spiritual--our office so looked forward to seeing them. Julius will be soooo missed here but we still have LaRayne--thank God. The world is a little less upbeat with the loss of Julius but his memory will be cherished by all of us here. Jesus has a great man in heaven with Him--thank you Lord for putting Julius in my life!!

“ LaRayne,

So sorry to hear about Julius. He will be sadly missed at Dr. Pultz's office. He always was so kind and so quiet. Never knew what he was thinking but always had a smile for us. We are certainly going to miss him. Take care LaRayne. We will see you in Crystal Falls on Monday. Love Peg

“ Although I only recently met Mr. Parochelli, I got a great sense of how much all of his family loved him, and what a great life he lived. His granddaughter, Paula, and I will plant a big garden this spring in his memory. My condolences to his wife Mrs. Parochelli, his son Julius and daughter Gaye, and to all of his extended family, including his grandchildren, and great grandchildren who had the benefit and great pleasure of knowing their grandfather for many years.

I wish I could be there personally to pay my respects. My prayers are with you.

Love,
