“ My sincere condolences to Pat's family. When we were kids, I used to visit my grandparents in Crystal Falls, and often played with Pat, Casper, and Molly. As we grew up, we saw each other less, and finally just went our separate ways. Then one night I was at Club Felix, and lo and behold, Pat was the chef. We had a chance to share some stories and just talk to each other. It's a wonderful memory.

“ My condolences. Pat was a great first boss, mentor and friend. As is too often the case, we lost touch as life took us in different directions, but fond memories and good lessons -- in the kitchen and in life in general -- remain with me so many decades later.

“ Dear Barb and family,
Kind, compassionate, patient and sweet are just a few words I would use to describe Pat. I enjoyed hearing his stories, especially the one about when he met you. One thing is for sure, you were the love of his life. Pat was proof that miracles do happen and he spent the extra time he had left giving us all his wisdom. I will miss him very much. My heart and my prayers are with you at this sad time.
God Bless,

“ Dearest Webb Family,
I'm sending my condolences to Pat's wife and children, grandchildren, and brother on their loss. My memories go way back to childhood, when our family came to visit our cousins and while the adults played cards, we kids played with the slot machine that Uncle Todd had installed, while standing on a chair. The boys were pretty aggressive and eventually shut us girls out of the play. I was not fortunate enough to get reacquainted with Pat, as an adult, as I was engulfed by my own immediate family. My own husband died 4 years ago, this month, after 45 years of marriage. It is a huge adjustment to lose your life partner, take it slowly and seek grief management, It was invaluable to me. Deepest sympathy to the entire family from Pat's cousin, Carol Frailing Crocker, Santa Monica, California

“ Dear Barb and family, our memories of Pat are of his laugh, so free, fun and contagious; and of the two of you at Club Felix, working so hard and raising kids; and having wine together at your house, listening to the stories of your early life together and hearing Pat's jokes. I'll never forget what Pat used to say if someone ordered their steak well done. Pat lived his life.

“ Dear Barb and family,

Oh, the stories we/he could tell!

The photo I posted is of the “Stray Cats”. A story in itself. Was the start of the Club Felix slow pitch team. Now only 3 of the ten left.

First memories of “Ape” come from Spring of 1967. Pat and Mike had a habit of throwing tennis racquets in anger. Never quite understood that! From tennis led my first true adventure in Crystal Falls. One evening while sitting at Louie’s, Pat got the idea we should go see if the suckers running. I had no idea what he was talking about but piled into their Scout and headed out to the Lind District. To make a fairly long story short, we got stuck on a log on a big puddle and ended up getting home VERY late!”

After a few more adventures in Marquette, we found ourselves “betrothed” to our wives of the past 45 years! Stag party! You betcha! However, the twist was it was a co-Ed party at the Grasser on Peavy Pond! Generator powered stereo! Brats In beer. Beer. Booze. Weed. Angry Campers Next To Us! Sheriff! One of the best parties I have ever been to! Two lucky guys to be blessed with the girls we married!

Was able to drive Pat to a few chemo sessions. He went from barely able to get down the deck steps to able to drive himself. Looked promising. However.

Fought the good fight and will be missed. Surf

“ Barb and family,

I was so sad to hear of your loss. Pat was an exceptional man and exemplary chef. One of my memories that brings me the most pride is when I over heard Pat saying to the other judges at a cook off that the mushroom stuffed chicken was wonderful. His opinion I valued. Another fond memory I have is when Pat and I were just shooting the breeze on a summer night, and he was excited about the new books he was reading. Those books were the Hobbit and the Trilogy, and I had never heard of them then. I got to college and there those books were the "in" thing to read. I eventually read those many times and remember that years before Pat had told me how great they were. How right he was!

Cherish all your sweet memories of your husband, father and grandfather.

Deeply saddened hearing about Pat's passing. We shared so many wonderful times during my years in Crystal Falls. Whether at your Camp, Club Felix, our famous brewer trips, golf outings, or at Paisano get togethers. Pat was a wonderful man and a great friend to me. May you find comfort in knowing how many lives Pat touched with his kindness. I will cherish the memories.

May he Rest in Peace!
