“ Great memories of deer hunting when Bob and I were kids and also with our kids. Another memory just popped into my head about his homemade chokecherry wine at my mom's house. Many happy memories that will never go away. Don't fully understand God's calling of who he needs and why he needs them. We understand your grief and hope family and friends will help you through this.

“ Dear Mary,

David called me with the news of Bob's passing. I am so sorry for your loss. He was such a good fella. Sure knew how to make a fella laugh. I have fond memories of when you and Bob visited my shop some time ago, a meal at John's hunting trailer in Alpha last year, and hunting with all the fellas when I shot a 10 point buck. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
