“ I have only good memories of Russell. He would come up to me at work and grab my hands and laugh. They were always cold. He was always willing to help anyone and did. He had cold hands but a very warm heart. Sorry for your loss.

“ I worked with Russell many years ago at Magiglide. Russell was a fine man and I learned a lot during the time I worked with him. He also let me use his garage a few times and helped me work on my car. Thoughts and prayers to Russell's family and friends.

“ AS A FAVORITE COUSIN, WE HAD SOME ADVENTURES. AS KIDS WE WERE WONT TO CLIMB TO THE BARN AND COOP ROOF AND CHEW ON THE WARM TAR. UNCLE HARRY VERBALLY LAID INTO US NOT FOR CHEWING THE TAR BUT FOR DESTROYING HIS BUILDINGS!!! BUT THEN HE DID SAY IT WOULD CLEAN OUR TEETH. WE WOULD HIKE THE RAILROAD TO PICK BLUEBERRIES..WE WOULD TOBOGGAN DOWN THE SIDE HILL AGAINST ORDERS. RUNNING INTO THE POPLAR AT THE BOTTOM. AS A GROWN UP HE WAS ALWAYS AT SOME WORK.ONE TIME I HELPED HIM CLEAN OUT BEWABIC PARK OF DOWNED MAPLES. NOTHING SEEMED TO BE TOO MUCH FOR MY FAVORITE COUSIN.
REST IN PEACE RUSS. LOVE YOU ALWAYS....LEORA
