“ My first memories of Susan date to my teen years in White Lake, SD. I was living in my Grandma Hoffmann's house during my Senior year in HS because my parents moved to Rapid City. For part of that time Eugene and Sharon lived there. I remember Sharon often sitting next to me in the evenings as I read my study material for the next school day, asking me questions and helping when she could. She was a loving, friendly person I always enjoyed seeing. I visited her and Eugene several times in Beloit, and met their two elder children when they were mere babes. May God bless Sharon and her family.

Please excuse my blunder. I meant to write Sharon, not Susan.
