

Sheila R. Kroll

August 19, 1985 - January 27, 2022

Sheila Kroll, 36, of Crystal Falls, passed away suddenly January 27, 2022. Sheila was born on August 19, 1985 in Lapeer, Michigan.

Sheila was the daughter of Karen A Munzel of Crystal Falls.

Sheila leaves behind father Tom Kroll of Almont, Michigan, loving brother Robert and step-brother Charlie in addition to Aunts Fran and Sue, nieces and nephews. Sheila was preceded in death by loving grandparents George (Bernice Viau) Kapolka of Deltona, Florida and Walter and Anna Kroll of Milladore, Wisconsin and many friends. Sheila loved dogs and leaves behind her “shared” doggo “Sherman T. Potter” with her Ma. Sherm misses her very much.

Sheila graduated from Romeo High School in 2004.

As a child, Sheila enjoyed 18th century reenacting with her family. Several times a month, you would see her dressed in her petticoat, bodice and mobcap, doing short reenactments with her mother at the local elementary school.

Sheila spent several years at the Mission Bible Training Center where she developed some amazing life skills.

Sheila's wit, charm and silliness will be missed by many. Sheila had a smile that would brighten the day. Sheila enjoyed her jobs at the Curious Pig, the Raven's Nest, in Crystal Falls, Mr. T's and Young's in Iron River. Sheila loved to talk with her customers and get their thoughts and opinions on many things. Sheila was already planning on collecting signatures for the election this fall for Michigan State House of Representatives.
