“ It is so very sad that you felt the need to leave the people here who loved and cared about you. The only way I can understand this is to think you needed your grandma and dad for what ever you were going through. I am sure they greeted you with open arms love support and peace. Tell them we love them and miss them. RIP little girl.

“ Mandy, Todd, & family, I am so sorry for your loss. There are no words, Mandy, to express how I feel about all the loss, pain, & sadness you have had to endure in your lifetime. Please choose to grow stronger because of it. That may seem very difficult right now, but know there are many people who care about you. Peace to you. Most sincerely & with love, Linda Odlund Colombino

“ My memory is of Storm as a 4 year old in my Head Start classroom. She dressed up in a dress and heels and stood in front of the full length mirror talking to herself. I have a couple other pictures of her, one sitting in the Dentist chair on a field trip, the other id her drawing on the dry erase board. She was always such a pleasant and happy child in our Classroom. Such a beauty as well. The family is in my thoughts and prayers.
